✦ LA GÜERA'S PICK · BEST STEAK

"Amazing seafood and the biggest steak I've ordered in Mexico City, at a Condesa tapas bar and asador that runs like a gastronomic pub. Start with the seafood tower and the clams, and ask for an order of the bread to dip in the clam juice. Then you must order the entrecot, the 400-gram Wagyu Haragi cross: enough to share with the whole table. Say hello to my friend and favorite sommelier there, Gus, and tell him Ashley sent you."

✦ LA GÜERA'S PICK · BEST TUNA TOSTADA

"It feels like eating dinner in a botanical garden: an old Condesa mansion's courtyard, cacti everywhere. Go check out the pond with the axolotl! Start with the tuna tostada, my favorite in the city, then the caramelos rellenos de cebolla caramelizada, rich pasta pillows that melt in your mouth in a sweet balsamic sauce. The rib eye burger is great too."

ROMA NORTE · ITALIAN

✦ LA GÜERA'S PICK · BEST TIRAMISU

"By far my favorite Italian in town, and the newest restaurant from the famous chef Eduardo García of Máximo. You have to start with the plate of prosciutto: you'll watch Chef García slicing it fresh in the middle of the restaurant. Save room for the best tiramisu in the city."

ROMA NORTE · TACOS

La Once Mil

✦ LA GÜERA'S PICK · BEST TACOS

"My favorite tacos. Get the ribeye Chairman's Reserve taco, estilo costra: the ribeye will melt in your mouth. Muy rico. They don't take reservations, so go anyway and put your name on the list. It's in the heart of Roma Norte, near Colima, so bop around the neighborhood while you wait. They hand you a beer at the door, and the Lomas original just earned a Michelin star."
